ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY:

Murfreesboro, named as one of the top 100 places to live by Money Magazine, is nestled just south of Nashville and is a short drive into the city. Tennessee is full of natural landscapes, including parks, lakes rivers, and campgrounds– offering plenty of outdoor activities in a setting that will remind you of a postcard. Tennessee BBQ is nationally known – but beyond the smoke, this area is a foodie’s dream, with renowned restaurants, serving up biscuits to the finest of foods. Be sure to sip while you dine at one of our breweries, distilleries, or wineries. Families thrive in Tennessee, with fun from water to amusement parks – zoos to aquariums. This area also has highly ranked schools, both public and private, as well as renowned colleges and universities. Located within a short drive to large metropolitan areas and international airports, your travel options are unlimited.
